Purposes of the processing as well as the legal basis for the processing

Your personal data is processed within the framework of the “Best of South-East” scholarship programme. The legal basis for the processing is basically the performance of a contract or in order to take steps prior to entering into a contract. Furthermore the processing of optional information, like in your letter of motivation, is based on your consent. Relevant information will be transmitted to cooperation partners (Oper Graz, Musikverein für Steiermark and Steiermärkische Sparkasse) which are involved in the scholarship programme.

Categories of personal data

Last name, first name, address, citizenship, copy of passport, diploma supplement and transcript of records, home university / sending institution (name and address), academic coordinator at the sending institution (name, address, phone number, E-mail address), current level of study at home university, date of issue of high school diploma, study confirmation of the home university, data of study, date of birth, first language, level of German knowledge, phone number, E-mail address, sex, field of study during scholarship, registration code (if studied in Austria before), recordings of performances, curriculum vitae, personal statement / letter of motivation, letters of recommendations.

Recipients or categories of recipients of the personal data

Recipient of your personal data is the Vice-Rectorate for Academic and International Affairs and if applicable also the study center of the University of Music and Performing Arts Graz. Applicable relevant information will be passed to cooperation partners (Oper Graz, Musikverein für Steiermark and Steiermärkische Sparkasse).

Period for which the personal data will be stored or the criteria used to determine that period

Your personal data will be stored until fulfillment of the mentioned purposes or to fulfill legal obligations. If applicable, your personal data will be archived, in case of a given archival value.

There is no intention to transfer personal data to a recipient in a third country or international organisation. There is also no existence of automated decision-making, including profiling.

Your rights as data subject

Right to rectification

You shall have the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of your inaccurate personal data. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

Right to erasure

You shall have the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of your personal data without undue delay and the controller shall have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed
- you withdraw consent on which the processing is based and where there is no other legal ground for the processing
- you object to the processing pursuant to Article 21(1) and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to Article 21(2)
- the personal data have been unlawfully processed

Right to restriction of processing

You shall have the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by you, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data
- the processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and request the restriction of their use instead
- the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- you have objected to processing pursuant to Article 21(1) pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of you

Right to withdraw consent

You shall have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

Right of access

You have the right to obtain information from the controller as to whether or not your personal data is being processed, and where that is the case, access to the personal data.

Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

You shall have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes the data privacy laws.

Right to object

You shall have the right to object, on grounds relating your particular situation, at any time to processing of your personal data which is based on the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller, the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, including profiling based on those provisions. Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you shall have the right to object at any time to processing of your personal data for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.
