CONFERENCES

Unsettled 1968: Origins - Myth - Impact - Tübingen: 14-16 June 2018

We intend to take this time of commemoration as the opportunity for opening our discussion on 1968, once again, in order to re-evaluate its impact to this day. We will collect opinions from different generations, and revisit the boundary of experiences, testimonies, and reflections in an inter-disciplinary manner. Combining scholarly conversations with a site-specific knowledge, we wish to enhance... \(Read more\)

Sociocultural Dimensions of Childhood – Sofia: 26-28 October 2018

The researches in the field of childhood recently attracted the attention of a wide range of specialists in the sphere of history, ethnology, anthropology, sociology, psychology, philosophy, literature, legal studies, etc., resulting in the creation of an innovative interdisciplinary research cooperation. With the advancement of scholarly achievements, topics like age and life cycle, gender and family, social development and... \(Read more\)

Socialist and Post-Socialist Urban Transformation in Small Cities of Southeast Europe – Regensburg: 9 November 2018

For the purpose of this workshop, we pragmatically categorise small cities as cities with population up to approximately 200,000. The decisive feature of these cities under scrutiny is that they developed from towns into emerging cities as a result of accelerated urbanisation and industrialisation. \(Read more\)

Commodification of History: The Past as Source of Entertainment and Commerce - Prague: 15-16 September 2018

The question how exactly history has been used in commercial settings, how the past is being transformed into history with a special commercial interest has so far been under researched. The workshop will pick up on this and tackle questions of commodification in an interdisciplinary approach and will aim at a more nuanced... \(Read more\)

Reforming Socialism: Aims and Efforts Before and After 1968 – Florence 25-27 October 2018

This conference aims to shed light on successful and unsuccessful as well as short and long-term attempts to further develop and integrate socialist theory and practice in the period from the mid-1940s until the fall of the Berlin Wall. Additionally, while the historiography has approached reforms as part of a broader framework... \(Read more\)

PUBLICATIONS

Chen Jian, Martin Klimke (eds.), The Routledge Handbook of the Global Sixties

'This extraordinary collection is a game-changer. Featuring the cutting-edge work of over forty scholars from across the globe, The Routledge Handbook of the Global Sixties is breathtaking in its range, incisive in analyses, and revolutionary in method and evidence. Here, fifty years after that iconic "1968," Western Europe and North America are finally de-centered... \(Read More\)

Marko Zubak, The Yugoslav Youth Press 1968-1980. Student Movements, Youth Subcultures and Alternative Communist Media

Tema ove studije jest omladinski tisak u SFRJ – splet raznolikih i časopisa, od tjednih informativnih glasila do specijaliziranih kulturnih publikacija, namijenjenih omladini i objavljivanih pod okriljem mreže državnih omladinskih i studentskih saveza. \(Read more\)

Slobodan Jelinić, Srbija i jezički sukob u Jugoslaviji 1967

Slobodan Selinić je otvaranjem ključnih pitanja (odnos prema federalizmu, konfederalizmu, nacionalizmu, liberalizmu, dogmatizmu), uspeo da predstavi i ulogu intelektualne elite u ovim sukobima, ali i lutanja Partije, te će ova knjiga biti nezaobilazna kao prilog Istoriji SKJ, ali i istorijama političkog, kulturnog i društvenog života socijalističke Jugoslavije.
