CONFERENCES

Heritage Activism in Cities of Eastern Europe and Russia from 1968 to the Current – Marburg: 13-14 September 2018

Our goal in calling this workshop is to examine and extend the existing knowledge about the political potential of heritage in the context of the post/socialist city, in the past and present. How can urban heritage and its making in the context of the city politicize, mobilize and produce opposition, including one expressed artistically? (Read more)

1968 und die europäische Integration – Paris: 30 November 2018

This conference aims to analyse the links between the social protest of the 1960s and the European Integration project. This relation will be tackled through the European causes and consequences of the movements for the EEC. Thus, the conference will seek to contextualize the event. Beyond the reference to the Trente Glorieuses it will stress the main evolutions of European politics in the 1960s-1970s and the economic and social...
