

POSTGRADUATE & EARLY CAREER CONFERENCE in MEDIEVAL ARCHAEOLOGY

Juraj Dobrila University of Pula, 26-28 April 2019

FRIDAY 26 APRIL

- 9.00 Registration
9.20 Introduction Dries Tys (President of MERC)

Session 1 Objects and identities

- 9.30 Jakub Sawicki (Archeologický ústav AV ČR, Prague, Czech Republic)
Late Medieval Dress (Accessories) From the Perspective of 'Cultural Frontiers' in Eastern Central Europe
- 9.50 Lisa Backhouse (University of Reading, UK)
People and Pottery at the Anglo-Saxon Royal Settlement of Lyminge, Kent
- 10.10 Nóra Buránszki (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary)
Medieval Pottery in the Outer Suburb of Margat Castle, Syria
- 10.30 Questions
10.40 Coffee Break

Session 2 Mapping space and mobility

- 11.10 Laszlo Ferenczi (Central European University, Budapest, Hungary)
Seasonality and the Logistics of Late Medieval and Early Modern Cattle Trade in Hungary
- 11.30 Saša Čaval (University of Reading, UK / Ca'Foscari, Venice, Italy)
Connecting Prehistoric Transhumance with the Medieval Funerary Culture in Bosnia and Herzegovina
- 11.50 Questions
12.00 Lunch Break

Session 3 Gender and the life course

- 14.00 Sophia Mills (University of Reading, UK)
Ageing the Elderly: Senescence in Medieval Britain AD 900 - 1550
- 14.20 Marta Hlad (Leiden University / Vrije Universiteit Brussel, the Netherlands), Sarah Schrader and Menno Hoogland (Leiden University, the Netherlands)
Gendered Division of Labour in 15th to 18th c. Aalst, Belgium, and 17th to 19th c. Middenbeemster, The Netherlands
- 14.40 Questions

Session 4 Mortuary culture

14.50 Emma Brownlee (University of Cambridge, UK)

The Development and Abandonment of the Furnished Inhumation Rite in Early Medieval Europe

15.10 Varvara Papamargariti (Uppsala University, Sweden)

Aspects of Byzantine Funerary Archaeology. The Case of the Town of Edessa in Northern Greece

15.30 Monika Milosavljević (University of Belgrade, Serbia)

Reusing Old Remains in Mortuary Practices in the Early Middle Ages in the Western Balkans

15.50 Questions

16.00 Coffee Break

16.30 Poster session

Michele Abballe (Ghent University, Belgium)

A Geoarchaeological Approach to Study an Alluvial Landscape: Ongoing Research from the Ravenna Hinterland (Italy)

Gianluca Foschi (Newcastle University, UK)

New Data on the Design and Building Processes of Early Churches: The Basilica of S. Apollinare in Classe

Barbara Hofman (Arheoloska raziskovanja s.p. Ljubljana, Slovenija)

Antique and Medieval Mortars from Koper, Slovenia

Ivanka Hristova (Umeå Uni., Sweden) Kristian Hristov (Sofia Uni. "St. Kliment Ohridski", Bulgaria)

Evidence From a Dolium From Augusta Trajana – Beroe in the Context of Social and Economic Changes During the Early Byzantine Period

Arca Roberts (University of Reading, UK)

Imagery and Inscriptions: Gender and Early Medieval Welsh Stone Sculpture

Nóra Ujhelyi (Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary)

Late Medieval Book Fittings from the Area of Orosháza (Southern Hungary)

17.00 Reception

19.00 Dinner

SATURDAY 27 APRIL

Session 5 Religion and power

10.00 Mária Vargha (Universität Wien – Central European University, Austria / Hungary)
Distant Reading of Large-Scale Archaeological Data – A Spatial Approach on the Christianisation of Medieval Hungary

10.20 Zvonimir Marinovic (University of Zagreb, Croatia)
Christian Liturgy in Early Medieval Dalmatia – Research Prospects

10.40 Questions

10.50 Coffee Break

Session 6 Landscapes at micro and macro scales

11.20 Jorge Rouco Collazo (University of Granada, Spain)
The Built and the Landscape: Methodological Approaches

11.40 Rowena Banerjea et al. (University of Reading, UK)
Soil Micromorphology as a Tool for Developing Heritage Management Strategies and Research Agendas for Medieval Castle Sites Across Europe

12.00 Fiorotto Celeste (University of Verona, Italy / Ghent University, Belgium)
The “Written Environment”: Reconstruction of the Medieval Landscape of the Bassa Romagna Plain (Ravenna, Italy) Through Archival Documentation (9th-12th c.)

12.20 Miha Murko (Center za preventivno arheologijo, ZVKDS, Slovenia)
The Beginning of a Medieval City Of Maribor – Slovenia

12.40 Questions

12.50 Lunch Break

Session 7 Objects and identities II

14.30 Hana Lewis (London)
Pattern and Process in the Material Culture of Anglo-Saxon Non-Elite Rural Settlements (c. 5th–11th c.)

14.50 Andrej Magdič (Institute for the Protection of Cultural Heritage of Slovenia, Ljubljana, Slovenia)
Byzantine Earrings with Bunch-like Pendants from Graves in North-Eastern Slovenia and Their Historical Context

15.10 Pia Šmalcelj (Novaković Institut za arheologiju, Zagreb, Croatia)
Problems of Research of Material Heritage of the Avar Period Revisited: New Directions, Challenges and Ideas

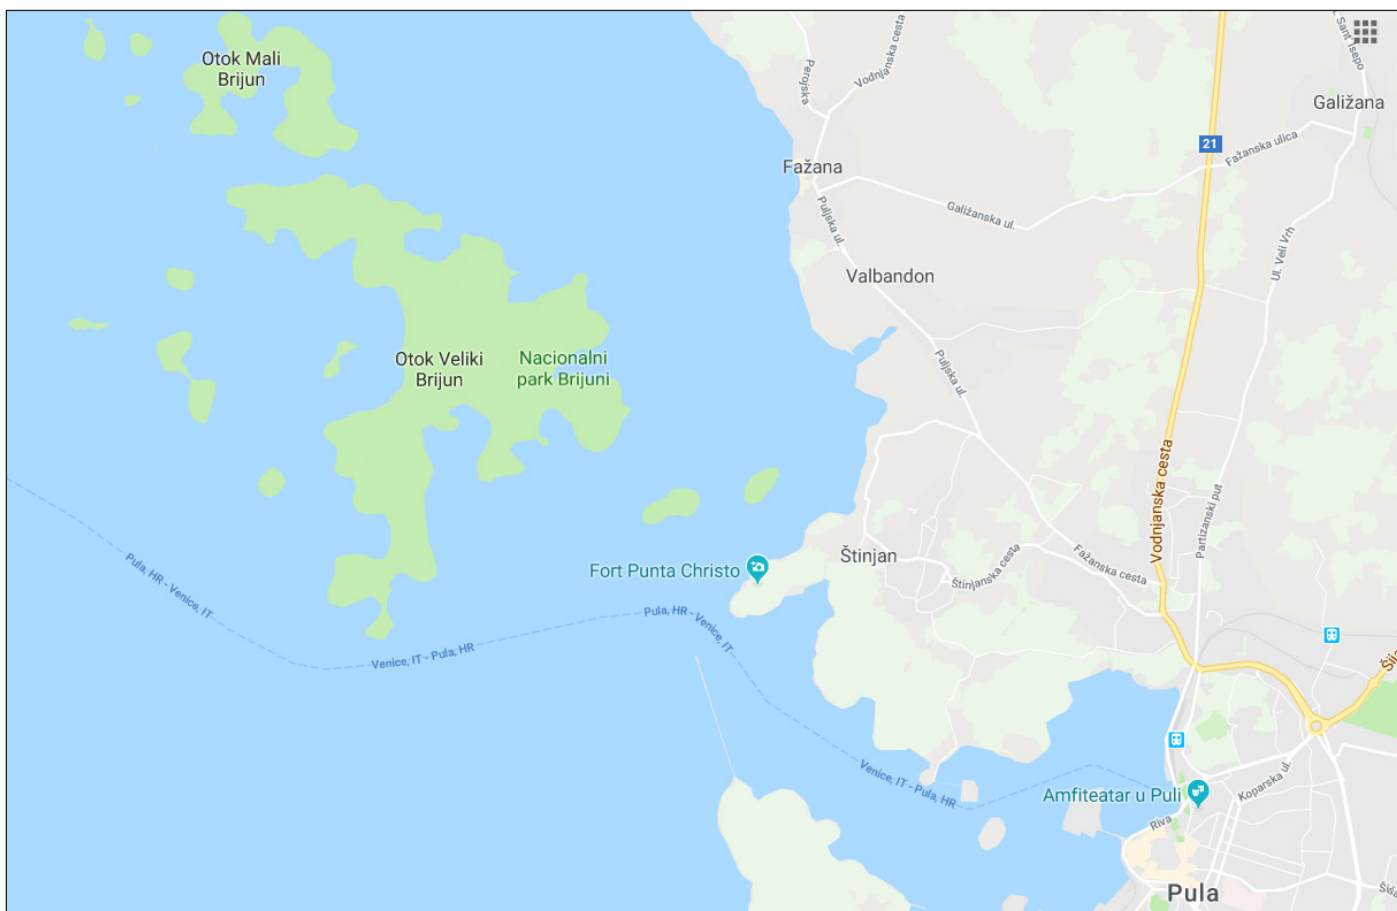

15.30 Questions

SUNDAY 28 APRIL

Excursion to Brijuni National Park

Map of central Pula showing location of the conference venue (ul. Ivana Matetića Ronjgova 1, 52100, Pula)

Map of Pula and Brijuni National Park

Acknowledgments

We are extremely grateful to prof. dr. sc. Robert Matijašić and the Juraj Dobrila University of Pula for providing the venue and enabling this conference to take place. Many thanks also to Dr Saša Čaval.